

COOL INTERNSHIP OF THE WEEK

Student Trainee (Contracting)

Department of the Air Force

The United States Air Force (USAF) is the aerial warfare and space warfare branch of the U.S. armed forces and one of the American uniformed services. The purpose of the USAF is to preserve the peace and security, and provide for the defense, of the United States, the Territories, Commonwealths, possessions and any areas occupied by the United States. Through this Student Trainee opportunity, the Student Career Experience Program (SCEP) offers valuable work experience directly related to the students' academic field of study. The program provides the student with progressive experience by integrating classroom theory with practical on-the-job experience. The agency may provide non-competitive conversion opportunity to a term or permanent appointment to those who successfully complete all required training and education requirements of the program.

In your position as a Student Trainee you will:

- Perform developmental work assignments designed to orient you in the applications of common contracting methods and contract types.
- Assist in monitoring contract performance.
- Assist in procurement of standard service, supply and/or construction items through formal advertising and negotiation procedures.

Requirements:

- You must be a United States citizen.
- You must have completed two years of post high school study or an associate's degree.
- You must be pursuing a baccalaureate degree, graduate degree or professional degree from an accredited institution.
- You must have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above.

Salary: 27,990.00 USD/ year

Location: Washington, D.C.

Deadline: February 10, 2010

Contact Information: Civilian Personnel Office
Phone: 321-494-4189
Control Number: 1786174

For this announcement and others like it see www.makingthedifference.org.

PARTNERSHIP FOR PUBLIC SERVICE