

HOT JOB OF THE WEEK

Economist

Department of Transportation

This position as an Economist in the Federal Career Intern Program is located within the Office of the Inspector General, U.S. Department of Transportation Headquarters Office in Washington, DC. The Office of the Inspector General's mission is to audit and investigate Department of Transportation programs to promote economy and effectiveness and prevent fraud, waste, and abuse. Within the Office of the Inspector General, five audit offices are dedicated to achieving a safer, more efficient transportation system.

In your position as an Economist you will:

- Receive training designed to develop your skills for performing work in a Federal audit environment.
- Assist in the evaluation and review of transportation-related competition and economic issues, including functions and operations of the Department of Transportation.

Requirements:

- You must be a United States citizen.
- You must have a college degree and grade point average of at least 3.0 or higher.
- You must have a degree in economics that included at least 21 semester hours of economics and 3 semester hours in statistics, accounting or calculus.

Salary: 41,210.00 – 65,531.00 USD/ year

Location: Washington, D.C.

Closing Date: December 30, 2009

Contact Information: Stephanie Robinson
Phone: 202-366-1490
Email: Stephanie.Robinson@oig.dot.gov
Control Number: 1680186

For this announcement and others like it see www.makingthedifference.org.

